

KRON

THE MANAGEMENT OF PATIENT CARE

Putting Leadership Skills to Work

วช.

WY105

Management of patient care

* B 0 0 1 5 6 9 5 *

ห้องสมุด วพบ นครราชสีมา

(0081)

CONTENTS

Part 1	THE 1980's—NURSING AT THE CROSSROADS
	Introduction.....	1
1	NURSE, QUO VADIS?	3
2	LEGAL ASPECTS OF NURSING PRACTICE	10
	by Ellen Durbin, R.N., M.Ed., M.B.A.
	Areas of Nursing Practice Covered in Nurse Practice Acts	10
	Standards of Care	11
	Legal Expectations	12
	Risk Management and Loss Control	12
	Informed Consent	13
	PSRO Law	13
Part 2	MANAGEMENT SKILLS AND TECHNIQUES
	Introduction.....	15
3	ADMINISTRATIVE AND MANAGERIAL FUNCTIONS	17
	Administrative Responsibilities	17
	Relationship of Management to Administration	20
	Major Functions of Management	21
4	UNDERSTANDING PEOPLE	24
	People and Their Needs	24
	People and Their Feelings and Attitudes	27
	People are Not All Alike	28
5	COMMUNICATION—A BASIC COMPONENT OF EFFECTIVE MANAGEMENT	31
	Basic Concepts of Communication	31
	Thinking—A Managerial Responsibility	38
	Listening—A Managerial Obligation	40

	Speaking—A Managerial Skill	41
	Reading—A Managerial Necessity	43
	Writing—A Managerial Requirement	44
	Communication—A Managerial Function	44
6	THE PROCESS OF PLANNING	47
	The Planning Formula	47
	Determining Priorities	48
	Management by Objectives	48
	Planning for Change	50
	When Changes Must Be Made	56
7	WORK IMPROVEMENT METHODS	60
	Purposes of Work Improvement Studies	60
	How to Solve Work Problems	61
	Facilitating Change	66
	Simplify the Paperwork	66
	Eight Suggestions to Help You Save Time	66
8	THE PROCESS OF ORGANIZING	69
	Characteristics of Good Organization	69
	Organizational Activities	69
9	LEADERSHIP—THE PROCESS OF IMPLEMENTING	77
	Importance of Leadership in Nursing	77
	Implementing Leadership in Nursing	79
	Leadership and Motivation	82
	Leadership and Supervision	82
	Leadership and Interpersonal Relationships	95
	Leadership in Nursing Administration	97
	Stress in Leadership	97
	by Ellen Durbin, R.N., M.Ed., M.B.A.
	Leadership and the Significance of Human Conflict	101
	by Ellen Durbin, R.N., M.Ed., M.B.A.
	Assertiveness in Leadership	104
	by Ellen Durbin, R.N., M.Ed., M.B.A.
	Decalogue for Leadership	108
10	THE PROCESS OF CONTROLLING	112
	Control is Management's Responsibility	112
	Measuring and Evaluating Performance	113
	Using Evaluation Records	118
	Types of Appraisal Guides	120

Part 3 LEADERSHIP/MANAGEMENT IN GIVING PATIENT CARE

Introduction – The Nursing Process	128
11 ASSESSING THE PATIENT	130
Guides to Making an Assessment	130
Obstacles to Making Accurate Assessments	133
Methods of Collecting Information	134
Identifying Problems	138
12 PLANNING NURSING INTERVENTION	144
Steps in Planning Nursing Intervention	144
Purposes of the Written Nursing Care Plan	148
Essential Parts of a Patient Care Plan	149
Beginning the Nursing Care Plan	155
Keeping the Nursing Care Plan Up-to-date	156
13 THE NURSING CARE PLANNING CONFERENCE	158
Purposes of the Conference	158
Planning for the Conference	159
Conducting the Conference	162
14 IMPLEMENTING THE PATIENT CARE PLAN	169
Use the Patient Care Plan in Work Organization	169
Use the Patient Care Plan in Orientation	173
Use the Patient Care Plan as a Guide in Supervision	174
Use the Nursing Care Plan to Ensure Continuity of Patient Care	186
Use the Patient Care Plan as a Basis for Documentation of Care	186
15 PROBLEM-ORIENTED RECORDS	191
Brief History of POR	191
Basic Components of a Problem-Oriented Nursing System	191
Results Found after Using POR	195
The Problem-Oriented System and the Nursing Process	196
16 EVALUATING PATIENT CARE	199
Basic Concepts to Aid in Evaluation	199
Evaluating the Results of Planned Nursing Intervention	200
Quality Assurance	205

CONTENTS

Part 4	PATIENT CARE MANAGEMENT—TEAM NURSING OR PRIMARY NURSING?
	Introduction	210
17	MANAGEMENT AND TEAM NURSING	212
	Team Nursing is a Philosophy	212
	Team Nursing is Guided by Several Concepts	213
	Suggestions for Application of Team Nursing Concepts	214
	Team Responsibilities	215
18	MANAGEMENT AND PRIMARY NURSING	221
	by Ellen Durbin, R.N., M.Ed., M.B.A.
	Primary Nursing Versus Other Kinds of Nursing	222
	Preparation of the Primary Nurse	223
	Staffing for Primary Nursing	224
	In-service Education/Staff Development	225
	Communications	225
19	COMPARISON OF THREE METHODS OF DELIVERING NURSING CARE	227
	by Ellen Durbin, R.N., M.Ed., M.B.A.
	INDEX	235