

Contemporary Leadership Behavior

SELECTED READINGS

FIFTH EDITION

EDITED BY

ELEANOR C. HEIN, R.N., ED.D.

Professor Emerita

University of San Francisco School of Nursing

San Francisco

วษ.

WY105

Contemporary leadership behavior

* B 0 0 1 7 1 6 9 *

ห้องสมุด วพบ นครราชสีมา

Lippincott

Philadelphia • New York

.....

CONTENTS

Preface v

Contributing Authors vii

PART I

The Culture of Nursing

1

1

Caring, Curing, Coping: Toward an Integrated Model 3

Christine Webb

Introduction 3

Female Caring and Male Curing 3

Doctors and Curing 4

Care: What is It? 5

Logocentric Caring 6

Different Care Settings 7

Lay and Professional Caring 8

Patients, Care, and Cure 9

Caring, Curing, Coping 11

2

Nurses' Conceptualizations of Caring Attitudes and Behaviors 16

Jane Dyson

Introduction 16

Defining Caring 17

Developing a Theory of Care 19

Discussion 22

Conclusions 23

3

Power and Caring: A Dialectic in Nursing 26

Adeline R. Falk Rafael

Patriarchy 27

Ordered Caring 29

Assimilated Caring 32

Empowered Caring 34

4
Attila the Hun Versus Attila the Hen: Gender Socialization of the American Nurse 39
Susan H. Cummings
Societal Roles for Women 40
War's Influence 40
Feminist Movement 41
Nursing Education 42
Nursing Role and Practice Changes 43
Media Images 44
Power and Politics 44
Men in Nursing 46
Opportunities for Change 47

5
Reverse Discrimination in Nursing Leadership: Hitting the Concrete Ceiling 49
Tim Porter-O'Grady
Foundations of Reverse Discrimination 49
Gender Bias and Leadership 50
Addressing Reverse Gender Bias 52
Some Counsel for Women 53

Questions to Part I 55

PART II

Leadership: Theories and Attributes

57

6
The Art of Legendary Leadership 59
Claire Manfredi
Leaders Create Visions 60

7
Leadership: Can It Be Holistic? 64
Barbara Stevens Barnum
Leadership Versus Management 64
Changing Times 65
Leadership Theory 65
A New Look at Leaders as People 67
Leadership in Diverse Roles 67
Spiritual Values 68

8
Transformational Leadership: The Feminist Connection
in Postmodern Organizations 70
Anne M. Barker and Constance E. Young
The Emerging Business Paradigm 71
Leadership for the Postmodern Organization 71
The Feminist Perspective 72
The Connection of Transformational Leadership and Women 73
Feminism and Transformational Leadership in the Health Care Environment 77

9	Ethical Aspects of Transformational Leadership 79
	Virginia R. Cassidy and Cynthia J. Koroll
	Leadership Versus Management 79
	Transformational Leadership 80
	Ethical Leadership 81
	Transformational Leaders as Moral Agents 82
10	Leadership in the Formation of New Health Care Environments 85
	Thomas Kent, James A. Johnson, and David R. Graber
	Transformational Leadership and Organizational Change 86
	Leadership Processes 87
	Questions to Part II 92

PART III

Contemporary Leadership Behaviors

93

.....
Section One ASSERTIVENESS

11	Speaking Up: A Moral Obligation 99
	Brigid Kelly
	Being True to Self 99
	The Price of Silence 100
	The Legacy of Speaking Up 101
	Summary 102
12	Anger in Nurses: Don't Lose It, Use It 104
	Patricia Gentry Droppleman and Sandra Paul Thomas
	View From the Trenches 104
	Perpetual Scapegoat 106
	Unrealistic Expectations 106
	Feeling of Powerlessness 106
	Anger Turned Inward 107
	Getting Beyond Infighting 108
	Turning Anger Into Empowerment 109

Section Two ADVOCACY

13	Nursing Advocacy: An Ethic of Practice 111
	Nan Gaylord and Pamela Grace
	Introduction 111
	Patient Right Advocacy 112
	Patient Advocacy: A Nursing Approach 115
	Case Study 115
	Summary 117

14

Managed Care and the Nurse's Ethical Obligations to Patients 118

Judith A. Erlen and Mary Pat Mellors

- Ethical Issues 119
- Impact of Managed Care 120
- Case Example 120
- Strategies 121
- Summary 123

15

Dirty Hands: The Underside of Marketplace Health Care 124

Wanda K. Mohr and Margaret M. Mahon

- Dirty Hands 125
- Situations—Unfettered Marketplaces 125
- Deviant Decisions, Deviant Environments, or Both? 126
- The Dangers of Dirty Hands 128
- Toward a 21st Century Research Agenda 130

16

Uncommon Decency: A Case Study in Collegiality 132

Leah L. Curtin

- Reflections on Our Relationships 133
- Nurse/Nurse Relationships 133
- The Ethics of a Profession 134

17

Are You at Risk for Disciplinary Action? 136

Alexia Green, Cady Crimson, Louise Waddell, and Oney Fitzpatrick

- Ignorance of the Law 136
- Going in Unprepared 137
- Failure to Assess or Document 139
- Looking the Other Way 139
- Lessons to Be Learned 142

Section Three MENTORING

18

Mentoring in the Career Development of Hospital Staff Nurses: Models and Strategies 143

Diane J. Angelini

- Review of Literature 143
- Methodology 145
- Findings: Structural Model of Mentoring 146
- Findings: Process Model of Mentoring 148
- Responses of Nurse Managers and Document Analysis 149
- Findings: Mentoring Strategies Provided by Staff Nurse Peers 151
- Findings: Mentoring Strategies Provided by Nurse Managers 151
- Conclusions 151
- Implications for Clinical Nursing Practice 152
- Recommendations for Further Research 152
- Summary 153

Section Four POWER19*An Analysis of the Concept of Empowerment 155Christine M. Rodwell*

Introduction 155

Aim of the Analysis 156

Uses of the Concept, Existing Definitions, and Parameters 156

Defining Attributes 161

Development of a Model Case 161

Related Concepts 162

Antecedents and Consequences 162

Empirical Referents/Operationalization of the Concept 163

Implications for Practice 163

20Delegation Versus Empowerment: What, How, and Is There a Difference? 168Charles R. McConnell*

Getting Things Done Through People 169

Delegation "Out," Empowerment "In"? 169

Delegation Failure: A Common Occurrence 170

What Is Actually Delegated 172

Task Authority: What Can Actually Be Delegated? 172

Bringing Person and Task Together 173

Preparing the Person 173

Examining Your Delegation Performance 174

Empowerment 175

A Sense of Ownership 176

21Staff Nurse Work Empowerment and Perceived Control Over Nursing Practice 177Heather K. Spence Laschinger and Donna Sullivan Havens*

Kanter's Theory of Structural Power 178

20 Related Research on Kanter's Theory 179

20 Control Over Nursing Practice and Nurse Work Satisfaction 179

20 Findings 180

20 Limitations 182

Discussion and Implications for Nurse Administrators 183

Recommendations for Further Research 185

Summary and Conclusions 185

Section Five POLITICS22*The Power of One Vote 187Gloria Steinem*

Caring About and Working Toward Humanity 187

The Power of Our Vote 188

Trials and Tribulations 188

Changing History 189

Celebrating Ourselves and Others 190

23

The Legislative Process 191

Kathleen Smith

- Structure of the Federal Government 192
- How a Bill Becomes Law 192
- Committee Structure 193
- Subcommittee Work 194
- Committee Work 194
- Conference Committee 194
- Presidential Action 195
- Federal Regulatory Process 195
- Becoming Knowledgeable 195
- The Process of Lobbying 196
- Preparing for Contact 197
- Communicating by Letter 197
- General Guidelines 198
- The Personal Visit 199
- Telephone Calls 200
- Summary 200

Section Six COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

24

Labor Laws Working to Protect You 201

Barbara E. Calfee

- Termination 201
- Discrimination 204
- Sexual Harassment 205
- Wage and Hour Law 206

25

The End of Collective Bargaining for Nurses? 209

Patricia C. McMullen and N.D. Campbell-Philipsen

- The NLRA: Protecting Employees' Rights? 210
- The Facts of the Case 212
- Battling It Out in Court 212
- The Majority Opinion 214
- The Dissenting Opinion 214
- Where Do We Stand Now? 215
- Where Do We Go From Here? 216

Section Seven CHANGE

26

Technology, Deskilling, and Nurses: The Impact of the Technologically Changing Environment 217

Ruth G. Rinard

- Theoretical Concerns 218
- Method 220

- Results 220
- Discussion 223
- Implications for the Future 224

27The Seven Basic Rules for Successful Redesign 226Tim Porter-O'Grady*

- Rule 1: No Exceptions 227
- Rule 2: Read the Signposts 228
- Rule 3: Construct a Vision 229
- Rule 4: Empower the Center 230
- Rule 5: Construct New Architecture 231
- Rule 6: Always Have a Plan of Action 232
- Rule 7: Evaluate, Adjust, Evaluate Again 233
- Conclusion 234

28Understanding the Seven Stages of Change 236Jo Manion*

- Stage 1: Losing Focus 237
- Stage 2: Minimizing the Impact 237
- Stage 3: The Pit 238
- Stage 4: Letting Go of the Past 238
- Stage 5: Testing the Limits 238
- Stage 6: Search for Meaning 240
- Stage 7: Integration 240

29Surviving Organizational Change 241Ruth Davidhizar*

- Drivers of Change 242
- Common Mistakes in Coping with Organizational Change 243

30Thriving in Chaos: Personal and Career Development 247Jane Neubauer*

- Dangers 248
- Opportunities 252
- Support and Challenge—Self 256
- Support and Challenge—Colleagues and Coworkers 257

Section Eight CONFLICT RESOLUTION31*Collaborative Conflict Resolution 259William Umiker*

- The Six Major Causes of Conflict 259
- Dangers of Escalating and Suppressed Conflict 260
- Basic Strategies for Coping with Conflict 260
- Confronting an Angry Person 261

32

Negotiating Skill for Health Care Professionals 263

William Umiker

The Three Basic Forms of Negotiation 263

Preparations for a Negotiation 265

Major Steps in a Negotiation 265

Barriers to Successful Negotiation 267

Questions to Part III 269

PART IV

The Organizational Setting

273

Section One ORGANIZATIONAL ASSESSMENT

33

The Organization Zoo: A Fable 277

John G. Bruhn and Alan P. Chesney

The Fable 277

Change and Challenge 280

Now What? 281

Downsizing 282

From Zoo to Workplace: A Short Leap 283

34

Diagnosing the Health of Organizations 284

John G. Bruhn and Alan P. Chesney

Similarities and Differences Between Individuals and Organizations 285

Characteristics of Healthy Organizations 286

How Organizations Become Unhealthy 288

Cycles of Sickness and Health 291

Degrees of Organizational Health 291

How an Organization Solves Problems 293

Changing Diagnoses 294

35

"Sizing Up" the System 295

Eleanor C. Hein

Formal Organizational Structures 295

Informal Organizational Structures 301

Section Two THE ORGANIZATIONAL SETTING

36

The Current Health Care Environment: Who Is the Customer? 307

Barbara S. Heater

Customers, Consumers, and Providers 307

The Customer of the Hospital Pre-Medicare 308

- The Customer of the Hospital in the Medicare Years 308
 The Customer of the Hospital under DRGS 308
 The Customer of the Hospital During Healthcare Reform 309
 The Customer of the Hospital Under Managed Care 309
 Organizational Classifications and Concomitant Responsibilities 310
 Consumers' Concerns 311
 Business Customers and Healthcare Customers 311
 Conclusion 312
- 37
 Patient Focused Care: Improving Customer Satisfaction While Reducing Costs 314
Jean Phillips Truscott and Gail Marchigiano Churchill
 Embracing Change 315
 Restructuring 315
 Implementing the Plan 319
 Preparing for the Future . . . Today 324
- 38
 Helping Your Patients Manage Managed Health Care 326
Suzanne Gordon and Timothy McCall
 The Consequences of the Move to Corporate Managed Care 329
 What RNs and Other Healthcare Providers Can Do 332
- 39
 Managed Care: Employers' Influence on the Health Care System 334
Karen T. Corder, Janet Phoon, and Marjorie Barter
 Employers Influence Providers 335
 Managed Competition 335
 Background 336
 Employers Want Proof: Outcomes Data Needed 337
 Conclusion 339
- 40
 After Reduction in Force: Reinvigorating the Survivors 341
Charles R. McConnell
 What Follows Reduction in Force? 341
 The Necessity of Reducing the Work Force 342
 The Employees Who Remain 344
 Immediate and Natural Reactions to RIF 344
 Employee Motivation Following RIF 345
 Changes in Supervisors' and Managers' Roles 345
 Education and Training Following Staff Reduction 346
 Resistance to Change: Coping with Dramatic Paradigm Shifts 348
- 41
 Shared Governance: Nursing's 20th-Century Tower of Babel 350
Robert G. Hess, Jr.
 In Search of Common Ground 350
 What's All This Babble About? 351
 Back to Earth 353
 What's Ahead? 353

42

Valuing Authority/Responsibility Relationships: The Essence of Professional Practice 355

Sherry S. Webb, Sylvia A. Price, and Harriet Van Ess Coeling

- What Is Culture? 355
- What Is the Relationship of Authority and Responsibility? 356
- Cultural Characteristics: Primary Nursing Versus Total Patient Care 356
- How Were Work Groups Assessed? 357
- What Were the Significant Findings? 357
- What Are the Implications for Nursing Administration? 358
- Conflict 358
- Leadership 359
- Change 359
- Adult Learning 359
- Conclusion 360

43

How Wide Is the Gap in Defining Quality Care? Comparison of Patient and Nurse Perceptions of Important Aspects of Patient Care 362

Wendy B. Young, Ann F. Minnick, and Richard Marcantonio

- Background 363
- Method 363
- Results 365
- Conclusions and Recommendations 366

Section Three ORGANIZATIONAL BEHAVIORS

44

Organizational Moles: Information Control and the Acquisition of Power and Status 369

John G. Bruhn and Alan P. Chesney

- Definition 369
- Environments and Leadership Styles Conducive to the Growth and Survival of Moles 370
- Differences Between Boundary Spanners, Gatekeepers, and Moles 371
- Moles as Organizational Members 372
- Identifying Moles 373

45

The Proactive Management of Rumor and Gossip 376

Violeta E. Ribeiro and Judith A. Blakeley

- Analysis of Gossip and Rumor 376
- Consequences of Gossip and Rumor in the Workplace 377
- The Grapevine Process 379
- Factors Associated with Gossip and Rumor 380
- Managing Rumor and Gossip 380
- Conclusion 383

46

Management by Intimidation: "Cooling Out" Perceived Competitors 385

John G. Bruhn

Intimidation and Its Forms 385

The Intimidator 386

The Victims 387

Effects on the Organization 388

Coping with Intimidation 388

47

Codependency in Nurses: How It Affects Your Organization 390

Barbara Wise and Beverly Ferreiro

Methodology 391

Findings 391

Discussion 397

Questions to Part IV 399

PART V

Leadership Imperatives: Shaping Nursing's Future

401

48

Quantum Mechanics and the Future of Health Care Leadership 403

Tim Porter-O'Grady

Leaving an Age 403

Quantum Principles and the Impact on Leadership 404

Human Capital: The Emergence of the Knowledge Worker 405

Role Change in the Quantum Age 407

Conclusion 409

49

Policy Imperatives for Nursing in an Era of Health Care Restructuring 411

David Keepnews and Geri Marullo

Health Care Restructuring and Cost Containment 412

Changes in System Predated Clinton Plan 412

Safety and Quality Concerns Come to the Fore 414

Strategies and Solutions on Safety and Quality 416

Threats to Public Programs 419

The Need for Continued Professional Unity 420

50

Creating a New Place in a Competitive Market: The Value of Nursing Care 422

Peter I. Buerhaus

Where We Are Now 423

Clearing the Cobwebs 426

Where We Are Going 426

What It all Means to Nurses 427

Advancing Nurses' Interests 429

A Call for Action 431

51

The Capitation Revolution in Health Care: Implications for the Field of Nursing 434

David C. Wylde

What Has Brought About Capitation? 434

What is Capitation? 436

Managing a Health Care System Under Capitation 437

The Implications of Capitation for Nursing 439

52

Profession Building in the New Health Care System 444

Kenneth R. White and James W. Begun

Nursing as a Complex Adaptive System 444

Traditional Profession Building in Nursing 445

Contemporary Profession Building in Nursing 447

Conclusion 450

53

The Revolution in Health Care: What's Your Readiness Quotient? 451

Diana J. Mason and Judith K. Leavitt

Currents of Change 451

What Your Test Scores Mean 453

First Step to Readiness: Keep Informed 454

Value Your Voice 455

Arm Yourself with Data 455

Use Your Political Savvy 456

Get Involved in Government 456

Harness the Forces of Change 456

Questions for Part V 458

Index 459